Kammer's first opponent was N. F. Griffin, of Richmond County, and the home player got a thorough trouncing to the tune of 7 up and 5 to play. He then found himself arrayed against Morton L. Fearey, one of the best of the Richmond Champion Defeats Griffin and County players. The champion got away to a fine start and won two of the first three holes, but Fearey, by sheer pluck, levelled the match at the turn. It stood that way until the end of the thirteenth, Thomas D.
